01 - Six comic panels

The Basket by the Door - Five-page layout example

Teaching example, not the original production record. Artwork areas are placeholders.

---

1. Illustration placeholder

A rabbit sees a basket by the door.

Narrator: This is a basket.

demo-s01

2. Illustration placeholder

The rabbit asks who owns the basket.

Rabbit: Is this your basket?

demo-s02

3. Illustration placeholder

Another character answers.

Mum: Yes, it is.

demo-s03

4. Illustration placeholder

The rabbit gives back the same basket.

Rabbit: Here is your basket.

demo-s04

5. Illustration placeholder

The other character says thank you.

Mum: Thank you!

demo-s05

6. Illustration placeholder

The rabbit responds with a smile.

Rabbit: You are welcome.

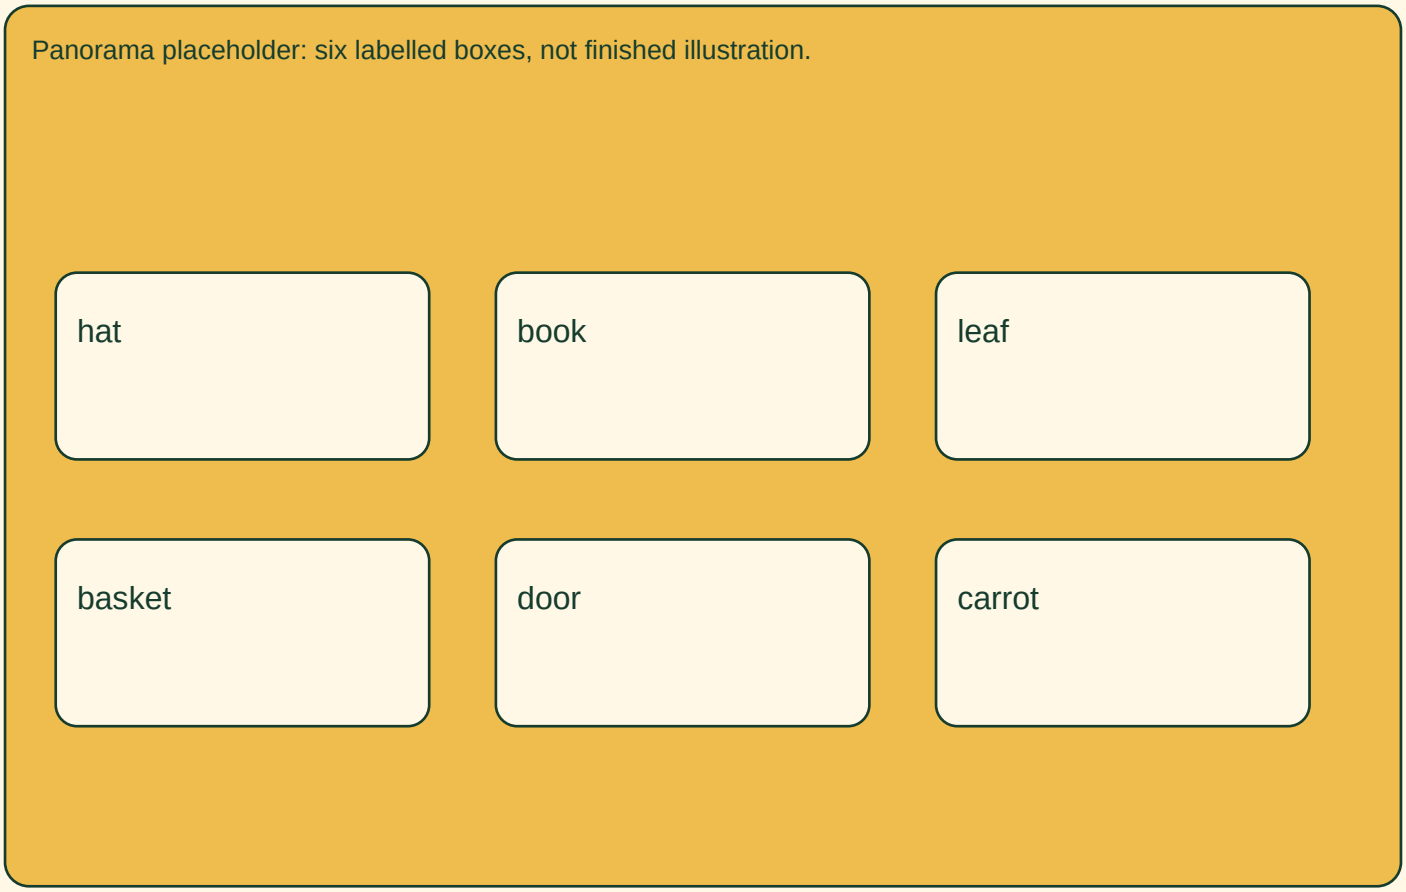
demo-s06

A fictional rabbit finds a basket, asks its owner and practises a short thank-you dialogue. All artwork areas are placeholders.

02 - Panorama and finding objects

The Basket by the Door - Five-page layout example

Teaching example, not the original production record. Artwork areas are placeholders.



Find it: point to the six labels. A real activity requires verified artwork.

This example demonstrates layout only. Object count and visibility require image review.

03 - Five word cards

The Basket by the Door - Five-page layout example

Teaching example, not the original production record. Artwork areas are placeholders.

---

basket - picture placeholder

a container

Pronunciation source: pending

This is a basket.

demo-s01

door - picture placeholder

an entrance

Pronunciation source: pending

This is the door.

demo-s07

carrot - picture placeholder

a vegetable

Pronunciation source: pending

This is a carrot.

demo-s08

red - picture placeholder

a colour

Pronunciation source: pending

It is red.

demo-s09

green - picture placeholder

a colour

Pronunciation source: pending

It is green.

demo-s10

04 - Shared text for read-along

The Basket by the Door - Five-page layout example

Teaching example, not the original production record. Artwork areas are placeholders.

---

demo-s01 · Narrator
This is a basket.

demo-s02 · Rabbit
Is this your basket?

demo-s03 · Mum
Yes, it is.

demo-s04 · Rabbit
Here is your basket.

demo-s05 · Mum
Thank you!

demo-s06 · Rabbit
You are welcome.

Read-along plan: leave 3 seconds after each line. No audio or measured timeline exists.

Act it out: swap roles. Speaker labels are not part of the spoken English text.

05 - Practice page

The Basket by the Door - Five-page layout example

Teaching example, not the original production record. Artwork areas are placeholders.

Word box: basket / door / carrot / red / green

1. Picture hint: Pointing to the basket

Is this your _____?

2. Picture hint: A placeholder for the same door

This is the _____.

3. Picture hint: A placeholder for one carrot

This is a _____.

Say it first, then fill in. Add a stamp after trying:

Parent answers are upside down. Artwork and text still need review.

Parent answers: basket / door / carrot